

Tax, legal & corporate services

Salles, Sainz – Grant Thornton, S.C. Tax, Legal and Corporate services help to find the best tools for our clients to compete in today's market rules.

For Salles, Sainz – Grant Thornton, S.C. it is especially important to provide separate and objective advise and consulting services in areas such as:

- audit
- accounting
- taxes
- business

Our services are designed to cover two main areas:

General Advisory Services

- tax consultation through the correct interpretation of Federal and Local tax provisions analyzing probable tax and legal consequences
- integral tax strategic planning for companies to achieve a better performance
- preparation and reviewing of contracts and agreements based on our clients' needs from an operational and tax perspective
- tax and legal audits in order to verify the correct performance of the companies' corporate obligations: board and meeting minutes and individual shareholders records, records on new corporations, mergers, spin-offs and stocks disposal, etc.

- environmental matters: audits, strategies, paperwork, management and litigation programs

Tax Litigation

- creation and filing of administrative defense means against municipal, state, federal and fiscal autonomous entities, in cases where there is a tax credit or, where a high tax or managerial damage to our clients has been proven
- creation and filing of a nullity case before the Federal Fiscal and Administrative Court
- creation and filing of an amparo procedure against administrative acts, resolutions and definitive judgments; or the development of defense strategies against tax law that may or has been declared as unconstitutional
